On July 18, 2019, the New York State Climate Leadership and Community Protection Act (CLCPA) was signed into law. NY's CLCPA is among the most ambitious climate laws in the world and requires New York to reduce economy-wide greenhouse gas emissions 40 percent by 2030 and no less than 85 percent by 2050 from 1990 levels. State agencies issuing permits, including NYSDEC, are requiring CLCPA assessments to determine whether a permittee's proposed actions are consistent with the attainment of statewide GHG emission limits. If deemed inconsistent, agencies are requesting detailed justification for projects and requiring identification of alternatives or imposing GHG mitigation measures. Mr. Williams will inform the group on the CLCPA assessment process and what it could mean for permitted facilities.
